Passed by the House of Assembly this      day of                      , 2019.

Speaker.

Clerk of the House of Assembly.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to modernise the Territory's legal framework with respect to the sale, supply and consumption of Liquor. The Bill also seeks to repeal and replace the Liquor Licence Ordinance (Cap.106).

This Bill is divided into fifteen parts.

Part I (clauses 1 to 3) provides for preliminary matters which includes the short title and commencement of the proposed Act and the definition of terms used in the Bill. Clause 3 provides for non-applicability, outlining areas under which the Act is inapplicable.

Part II (clauses 4 to 6) provides for the Liquor Licensing Board.

Clauses 4 provides for the establishment of the Liquor Licensing Board and clause 5 provides for the functions of the Board.

Clause 6 provides for the Annual Report of the Board.

Part III (clauses 7 to 11) provide for Inspectors under this Act.

Clause 7 provides for the designation of suitable public officers which may include fire officers and environmental health officers to act as Inspectors under this Act.

Clause 8 provides for the duties of Inspectors.

Clause 9 provides for the submission of a Report to the Board where an Inspector or a police officer carries out his or her duties under this Act.

Clause 10 provides for the issuing of identification signed by the Minister, to inspectors.

Clause 11 provides for police officers to assist in the enforcement of this Act. Under this Act police officers shall have the same powers, authorities and privileges as are given by law to the Inspectors.

Part IV (clauses 12 to 19) provides for Licences.

Clause 12(1) provides that it shall not be lawful for a person to sell any liquor in the Virgin Islands except by persons licensed to do so or by persons acting on behalf of a licensed person in the course of their immediate employment. A person who contravenes clause 12 (1) commits an offence and is liable to penalties.

Clause 13 outlines the kinds of licence to be granted under this Act; which includes the following; a Small Dealers Retail Licence, Retail Licence, Wholesale Licence, Nightclub Licence, Members Club Licence, Hotel Licence, Restaurant Licence, Bar Licence, Beer Licence, Vessel Licence, Special events Licence, Stills Licence, General liquor licence.

Clause 14 provides for Stills Licence.

Clause 15(1) provides that a licence granted under this Act shall authorise the holder of such licence to sell liquor according to its tenor and not otherwise. Under clause 15(2) a person may apply for and hold all or any one or more licences provided for under this Act.

Clause 16(1) provides generally that a licence under this Act is non-transferable. However, under clause 16(2) the Minister may, in the event of the death of a licensed person transfer a licence to the personal representative of the licensed person or to the appointee of such personal representative for the remainder or duration of the licence upon such terms and conditions as he or she deems appropriate.

Clause 17 provides where a person supplies another person with food, aerated or other drink and liquor, and receives payment, the presumption that such supply of liquor was in pursuance of a contract of sale, shall not be rebutted by any suggestion, allegation or pretence that the payment was in respect of the food, aerated or other drink only.

Clause 18 provides for the fees for licence under this Act in Schedule 4.

Clause 19 provides for the Board to keep a register to be known as the Liquor Licence Register. The Register shall contain specific particulars. The Board shall cause to be entered in the Register, in such form as may be prescribed by the Board, notice of any conviction of a licensed person and notice of any disqualification imposed upon such person under the provisions of this Act.

Part V (clauses 20 to 34) provides for the procedure for obtaining licences.

Clause 20 provides for the Board to meet at such times as may be required during the year, which days shall be referred to as licensing days.

Under clause 20(2) the Secretary of the Board must notify the public of such licensing days and the requirements for applications on such days by public advertisement.

Clause 21 provides for the application process for a licence before the Board.

Clause 22 provides for an Inspector, after service of an application to the Board, to enter the premises in respect of which an application is given at reasonable times and inspect the premises.

Clause 23 provides for specific requirements of premises to obtain a licence under this Act.

Clause 24 provides for the hearing of an application before the Board.

Clause 25 provides for the issuing of a licence by the Board. Where the Board considers that a licence should be granted, it shall within fourteen days grant to the applicant a certificate specifying the particular licence to be granted.

Under 25(3) upon production of the certificate and on payment of the required fee to the Commissioner of Inland Revenue, the Commissioner of Inland Revenue shall issue to the person named in the certificate a licence.

Clause 26 provides for the duration of a licence which shall be for a period of one year from the date of issue.

Clause 27 provides that a licence shall not be granted for a person under the age of eighteen years.

Clause 28 provides for the grounds under which a licence may be refused.

Clause 29 provides for the application process for the renewal of a licence.

Clause 30 provides for the issuing of licences on renewal the Board shall, unless cause be shown to the contrary, within fourteen days grant to the applicant a certificate authorising the renewal of the licence.

Clause 31 provides for the suspension or revocation of a liquor licence.

Clause 32 provides for circumstances where a licence is lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed. A person may apply to the Board for the replacement of such licence. Where the Board is satisfied that the licensed person's original certificate has been lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed the Board may issue a replacement licence for a prescribed fee.

Clause 33 provides for authorising relocation of a licensed premises, wherein a holder of a licence who wishes to be relocated to some other premises than the premises mentioned in his or her licence shall before the expiration of his or her licence apply to the Board, and the Board upon being satisfied of the fitness of the premises to which such holder wishes to be relocated, may grant a licence authorising the relocation.

Clause 34 provides for the penalty for permitting premises to be used for offences against the Drugs (Prevention of Misuse) Act, (Cap 178).

Part VI (clauses 35 to 39) provides for illicit sales.

Clause 35 provides for prohibition of sale of liquor without a licence. Where a person sells liquor without a licence such person commits an offence and is subject to an administrative penalty. Where a person fails to pay such administrative penalty he or she shall be proceeded against in Court and if convicted shall be liable to a fine or a term of imprisonment.

Clause 36 provides for the occupier of an unlicensed premise in which any liquor is sold to be liable to penalties imposed upon persons for the sale of liquor without a licence under clause 35.
