Schedule 2

(2) If the application to renew a licence is submitted one month after the date of expiry of the licence, the application for renewal shall be accompanied by the renewal fee and the relevant late fee specified in Schedule 2.

(3) The Commission on being satisfied that the applicant has complied with the provisions of this Act shall renew the licence.

(4) Where a licensee fails to renew a licence within six months of the licence expiring, the licence shall cease to be valid without prejudice to the right of the Commission to recover any fee due on the date the licence ceased to be valid.

Fees for licences.
Schedule 1
Schedule 2

11. (1) The fees payable in respect of licensing and the other matters under this Act are the fees specified in the Schedules 1 and 2.

(2) Where a licence is issued after 31st March in any year, the licensee shall pay the proportionate amount of the annual fee for the remainder of the year.

(3) For each additional premises in respect of a business, the applicant shall pay a licence fee of a sum equivalent to fifty percent of the business licence fee paid in respect of his or her principal place of business.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (2), the proportionate amount shall be calculated by treating every portion of a quarter of the year as a full quarter.

Licence required for each
premises.

12. (1) A person who desires to carry on a business on any premises other than in the principal place where the business is being carried out shall first obtain from the Commission a licence for that purpose in respect of each of the premises in addition to the licence already obtained for his or her principal place of business.

(2) Where more than one business, other than the principal business are carried on in the same premises a separate licence shall be obtained for each business except, where such businesses are related to the principal business then only one licence fee shall be payable in respect of the principal business.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2), the Commission shall determine whether a particular business is related to the principal business.

(4) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.

Licence to named person.

13. (1) Every licence issued to a person under this Act other than to a travelling vendor shall

(a) entitle the licensee for the period specified in the licence, to carry on the specified business from the place designated in the licence; and

- (b) be put into active use in the business for which the licence was granted within ninety days or such further period as may be determined by the Commission following the issuance of such licence.

(2) A licence that is not used in accordance with subsection (1)(b) shall be automatically revoked.

14. (1) Except as provided in this section, a licence granted under this Act is not transferable.

Transfer of licences.

(2) The Commission may, in the event of the death of a licensee, transfer a licence to the personal representative of the licensee for the remainder of the duration of the licence upon such terms and conditions as the Commission considers appropriate, and such transfer shall, upon the payment of a transfer fee of a sum equivalent to twenty percent of the licence fee, be made by endorsement on the original licence in the prescribed form.

(3) In subsection (2), “personal representative” means an executor or an administrator for the time being of a deceased person.

(4) Where a licensee wishes to sell or otherwise transfer ownership of the licensee’s assets to another person, the licensee shall, prior to the completion of the sale or transfer of the assets,

- (a) submit an application for change of ownership, to the Commission, in the prescribed form, specifying the reasons for the change of ownership; and
- (b) the person to whom ownership is to be transferred shall submit an application to the Commission for a business licence, in accordance with section 5, the Commission shall, if the application is in compliance with this Act, grant the business licence to the person referred to in paragraph (b) in advance of the sale or transfer of assets so as to allow for continuous operation of the business.

(5) Any outstanding fees relating to the current licence shall be paid prior to any transfer granted pursuant to this section.

15. (1) A licensee shall display the licence in a prominent place on the premises to which the licence relates unless the licence is in relation to a mobile business, in which case the licensee shall carry the licence with him or her whilst engaged in the business for which the licence is granted.

Display and production of licence.

(2) A licensee or a person for the time being who is in charge of the business shall produce the licence for inspection to the Trade Commissioner, a person authorised by the Trade Commissioner or to a police officer when requested to do so.

(3) A person who, without reasonable excuse fails to comply with subsections (1) or (2), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

Inspection of
premises.

16. (1) For the purposes of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act or of any regulations made under this Act are being complied with, an authorised officer may inspect any building or premises during normal working hours, to make such examination and enquiry as may be necessary.

(2) An authorised officer, when exercising any powers under subsection (1), shall declare his or her office and shall produce his or her authority in writing to the licensee or the person for the time being in charge of the business.

(3) A person who, without reasonable excuse obstructs an authorised officer in the performance of his or her functions, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

Lost or destroyed licence.
Schedule 2

17. Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commission that a licence has been lost or destroyed, the Commission shall, upon payment of the fee specified in Schedule 2, issue a duplicate of such licence to the licensee.

Temporary suspension of
licence.

18. (1) Where the Commission is of the opinion that a licenced activity presents a danger or is likely to present a danger to the public health, safety and welfare the Commission may temporarily suspend the licence pending the outcome of a hearing by the Commission.

(2) Where the Commission decides to temporarily suspend a licence pursuant to subsection (1), the Commission shall

- (a) notify the licensee in writing its intention to temporarily suspend the licence, specifying the grounds on which the Commission considers that the licence ought to be temporarily suspended; and
- (b) give the licensee the opportunity to submit reasons why the licence should not be temporarily suspended.

19. The Commission may suspend or revoke a licence if the licensee

[Section 25]

PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

Manufacture of Tobacco Products
Any Offence under the Drugs (Prevention of Misuse) Act (Cap 178)

Passed by the House of Assembly this day of , 2020.

Speaker.

Clerk of the House of Assembly.

OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Bill also seeks to repeal and replace the Business, Professions and Trade Licences Act (Cap.200).

The Bill consists of thirty-one sections and three Schedules.

Clause 1 would provide for the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 would define the various terms used throughout the Act.

Clause 3 would require persons who wish to engage in a business specified in the Schedules to have a current licence authorising the person to engage in that business and failure to do so would be an offence.

Persons selling certain locally produced products including unprocessed agricultural products, marine products and homemade pastries would not be required to have a licence under this Act.

By clause 4 the Commission would be empowered to consider an application to engage in a business that is not provided for in Schedules 1, 2 and 3.

Clauses 5 and 6 would set out the requirements for submitting an application for a licence, whilst clause 6 would provide for the matters to be considered by the Commission when considering an application for a business licence. The matters to be considered would include

- whether the business or proposed business is one in which beginners have had a substantial representation;
- the necessity, if any, for the institution of quotas for the types and categories of businesses to be licensed and operated; and
- the socio-economic impact of the proposed business activity to the economy of the Virgin Islands.

Clauses 7 and 8 would provide for the grant and issue of a licence and the form of the licence.

Clause 9 would provide for the duration of a licence whilst clause 10 would provide for some of the requirements for the renewal of a licence including a certificate of good standing, compliance with any other applicable laws and evidence to satisfy the Commission that the licensee has satisfied their tax obligations, social security contributions requirements and national health insurance contributions requirements.

Clause 11 would provide for the applicable fees under the Act.

Clause 12 would require a licensee to obtain a licence for each additional premises in respect of a business and failure to do so would be an offence.

Clause 13 would require a licence to be put into active use with ninety days or such further period as the Commission may allow and failure to utilise the licence within the required time will result in the licence being automatically revoked.

Clause 14 would provide for a licence to be transferred only in specified circumstances and in a specified manner.

Clause 15 would require a licensee to display the licence in a prominent place and to produce it upon request by The Trade Commissioner or a person authorised by the Trade Commissioner, or a Police Officer.

Clause 16 would provide for the inspection of licensed premises by persons authorised by the Commission for the purposes of ascertaining whether the Act or Regulations made under the Act are being complied with.

Clause 17 would provide for the issue of duplicate licence where the original is lost or was destroyed.

Clause 18 would provide for the temporary suspension of a licence where the Commission is of the opinion that a licenced activity presents a danger or is likely to present a danger to the public health, safety and welfare. The Commission may temporarily suspend the licence pending the outcome of a hearing by the Commission.

Clause 19 would give the Commission the power to suspend or revoke a licence in various circumstances including contravention of the provision of the Act, regulations made under the Act, any trade legislation.

Clause 20 would provide for a licence to be amended.

Clause 21 would require the licensee to notify the Commission of certain changes including changes in the address or contact information.

Clause 22 would require a business that is temporarily closed to notify the Commission.

Clauses 23 to 25 would provide for reserved business activities, restricted business activities and joint venture activities.

Clause 26 would provide for offences and penalties.

Clause 27 would provide for offences by bodies corporate.

Clause 28 would provide for the Schedule to be amended by the Minister, on the advice of the Board.

Clause 29 would provide for the Minister to make regulations.

Clause 30 would provide for repeals and savings.
